

_____ Name _____

Date _____

Spelling List Week 30

List 85

cheer ful

chick en

driv ing

drive

ech oes

ech o

fair y

knock

leath er

lin en

List 86

mix ture

na tion

pause

peace

per mis sion

rough

so cial

steal

strange

tro phy

List 87

voic es

voice

eight

ate

a fraid

un cle

rath er

com fort

e lec tion

e lect

Compound Sentences Homework

- ✓ Write two compound sentences using your spelling words. Use a variety of spelling words.
- ✓ Underline the spelling words.
- ✓ Include at least one adjective in each sentence. Circle the adjective.
- ✓ Remember to skip a line between each sentence.
- ✓ Sentences should be written neatly with proper spacing between words.

Coordinating conjunctions include:
and but or

A compound sentence is a sentence that contains two independent clauses joined together by a comma and a coordinating conjunction.

Ex. My mom likes to bake, and I like to help her.

Aaron likes to play soccer, but Gannon prefers to play baseball.

Complex Sentences Homework

- ✓ Write two complex sentences using your spelling words. Use a variety of spelling words.
- ✓ Underline the spelling words.
- ✓ Include at least one adjective in each sentence. Circle the adjective.
- ✓ Remember to skip a line between each sentence.
- ✓ Sentences should be written neatly with proper spacing between words.

If your sentence starts with a dependent clause, be sure to include a comma after the clause.

There is no comma if the dependent clause is at the end of your sentence.

Ex. Because you were late, you missed the math test.

You missed the math test because you were late.

Dependent clauses start with a subordinating conjunction. Here is a list of some subordinating conjunctions:

because	since
if	while
when	although
after	until
as	whenever
unless

_____ Name _____ Date _____

Spelling Sentences

Directions:

- Using your spelling words write a sentence for each sentence type.
- Each sentence should have at least five words.
- Include at least one adjective. Neatly circle the adjective.
- Start on a line that has a top line and a base line.
- Underline the spelling word.
- Don't forget to use capital letters and punctuation.

Declarative – a statement; is telling something and contains one thought about a person, place, or thing

Interrogative – a question; is asking about someone or something

