

_____ Name _____

Date _____

Spelling List Week 34

List 97

dis tance

dis tant

ex plain

float ed

ghost

hol i day

ho ly

knee

lem on ly ing

List 98

lie

nails

nee dle

no bod y

oar

pal ace

pen ny

reg u lar

re peats

sail or

List 99

sen tence

shin ing

shine

sur face

sweep ing

sweeps

thief

waist

waste

wait ing

_____ Name _____

Date _____

Compound Sentences Homework

- ✓ Write two compound sentences using your spelling words. Use a variety of spelling words.
- ✓ Underline the spelling words.
- ✓ Include at least one adjective in each sentence. Circle the adjective.
- ✓ Remember to skip a line between each sentence.
- ✓ Sentences should be written neatly with proper spacing between words.

Coordinating conjunctions include:
and but or

A compound sentence is a sentence that contains two independent clauses joined together by a comma and a coordinating conjunction.

Ex. My mom likes to bake, and I like to help her.

Aaron likes to play soccer, but Gannon prefers to play baseball.

Complex Sentences Homework

- ✓ Write two complex sentences using your spelling words. Use a variety of spelling words.
- ✓ Underline the spelling words.
- ✓ Include at least one adjective in each sentence. Circle the adjective.
- ✓ Remember to skip a line between each sentence.
- ✓ Sentences should be written neatly with proper spacing between words.

If your sentence starts with a dependent clause, be sure to include a comma after the clause.

There is no comma if the dependent clause is at the end of your sentence.

Ex. Because you were late, you missed the math test.

You missed the math test because you were late.

Dependent clauses start with a subordinating conjunction. Here is a list of some subordinating conjunctions:

because	since
if	while
when	although
after	until
as	whenever unless

_____ Name _____ Date _____

Spelling Sentences

Directions:

- Using your spelling words write a sentence for each sentence type.
- Each sentence should have at least five words.
- Include at least one adjective. Neatly circle the adjective.
- Start on a line that has a top line and a base line.
- Underline the spelling word.
- Don't forget to use capital letters and punctuation.

Declarative – a statement; is telling something and contains one thought about a person, place, or thing

Interrogative – a question; is asking about someone or something

