

_____ Name _____

Date _____

Spelling List Week 36

List 103

de gree
pris on
en gine
vis it
guest
guess
de part ment
ob tain
fam i ly
fa vor

List 104

Mrs.
Mr. = Mis ter
Miss
hus band
a mount
hu man
view
clerk
though
o'clock

List 105

sup port
does
do
re gard
es cape
since
which length
long
strength

_____ Name _____

Date _____

Compound Sentences Homework

- ✓ Write two compound sentences using your spelling words. Use a variety of spelling words.
- ✓ Underline the spelling words.
- ✓ Include at least one adjective in each sentence. Circle the adjective.
- ✓ Remember to skip a line between each sentence.
- ✓ Sentences should be written neatly with proper spacing between words.

Coordinating conjunctions include:

and

but

or

A compound sentence is a sentence that contains two independent clauses joined together by a comma and a coordinating conjunction.

Ex. My mom likes to bake, and I like to help her.

Aaron likes to play soccer, but Gannon prefers to play baseball.

_____ Name _____

Date _____

Complex Sentences Homework

- ✓ Write two complex sentences using your spelling words. Use a variety of spelling words.
- ✓ Underline the spelling words.
- ✓ Include at least one adjective in each sentence. Circle the adjective.
- ✓ Remember to skip a line between each sentence.
- ✓ Sentences should be written neatly with proper spacing between words.

If your sentence starts with a dependent clause, be sure to include a comma after the clause.

There is no comma if the dependent clause is at the end of your sentence.

Ex. Because you were late, you missed the math test.

You missed the math test because you were late.

Dependent clauses start with a subordinating conjunction. Here is a list of some subordinating conjunctions:

because	since
if	while
when	although
after	until
as	whenever unless

_____ Name _____ Date _____

Spelling Sentences

Directions:

- Using your spelling words write a sentence for each sentence type.
- Each sentence should have at least five words.
- Include at least one adjective. Neatly circle the adjective.
- Start on a line that has a top line and a base line.
- Underline the spelling word.
- Don't forget to use capital letters and punctuation.

Declarative – a statement; is telling something and contains one thought about a person, place, or thing

Interrogative – a question; is asking about someone or something

